To deal with such a power as the present rulers of Germany upon Pope Benedict's plan, declares the president, would involve a recuperation of the strength and renewal of the world domination of that power now balked, but not defeated, after sweeping a continent with the blood of innocent women and children, and the helpless poor, as well as of soldiers.

Permanent peace must be based upon the faith of all the peoples, and upon justice and fairness and the common rights of mankind, he adds, and "we cannot take the word of the present rulers of Germany as a guaranty of anything that is to endure unless explicity supported by such conclusive evidence of the will and purpose of the German people themselves as the other people of the world would be

WEDDING YESTERDAY. The wedding of Miss Ruth Hubby and Douglas Herring took place yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride, Eighteenth and Barnard streets, at 1:30 o'clock. A bank of palms and Easter lilies formed an altar for the ring service, the Rev. John R. Morris officiating, owing to the absence of the bride's pastor, the Rev. E. P. Culver. The groom was attended by Walter Fort as best man, and the bride entered on the arm of her father, Turer E. Hubby.

The bride was dressed in a coat suit of silver cloth, with tailored black hat, and accessories of gray. Her corsage was of sweetheart buds.

The rooms were filled with girlhood iends of the bride and with relatives the bride and groom. The groom has eived her education at Bellcourt, Washington, D. C. She is accomplished, petite, and altogether charming. The groom is also a son of Waco since birth, being one of the Herrings of Herring Avenue.

"HETTY"

WHEREIN A LAWYER PROVES A HAND AS EVIDENCE

Hetty Anderson. 22, comes from Rogers and settles in a cheap boarding house on Franklin street, securing work at the Rethlehem Machinery company, of which Eaker is president and Durham manager. She makes the acquaintance of Billy Matthews, a man of some means, and very attractive to women. After a brief courtship he offers to marry her, but she refuses, and he pursues her, until all ends in a stormy interview at Cameron park. Her work at the office is proving satisfactory, but there is bad blood between Jackson, a salesmen, and Baker and Durham. Walter Barton, a wholesome young man of the society set, comes is to see Grant Baker, the bookkeeper and burham. She coasents, the play being "Midsummer Night's Dream," in which Hetty has played previously in her home town. She is received coldly, but determines to see it through. Jim Karnes, a country lover, comes to town and tries to force Hetty to marry him, showing a license aiready made out. She teards it up and sends him away. Through jealousy of Durham's wife, Hetty works late on the night of the first rehearsal, but is assisted by Walter Barton, and gets to rehearsal before it is over.

Acquaintance on a platonic basis is begun in Waiter Barton's runabout after rehersal.

Hetty during an intermission of the next rehearsal makes friends with a really fine girl. Edith Barrington, who has been introduced to her by Walter Barton. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

days of real economy, and Cash Mercantile Company cuts the price for this special to the lowest level. When prices are out in most lines it means that the season for the goods is practically over, that it is an old stock, or goods originally priced too high and are unsalable on that account. But where do you find concerns in any line of business cutting prices which are already low on new, fresh stocks of strictly seasonable articles, and for which there is a continuous and healthy demand? Cash Mercantile Company has a unique reputation for doing things different, and this difference means money in the pockets of Cash Mercantile Company customers. This week every Cash Mercantile Company manager will be ready to sell the same high-grade groceries, which are already lower in price than you can buy anywhere else in the country at the cut prices shown below in this ad. No old stock, no unseasonable goods, but the articles that you know about and that you have been buying and using every day. Why not be prudent and enjoy the many special offerings to be had at Cash Mercantile Company's big saving prices?

New Orleans. Aug. 28.—Favorable weather conditions over the belt and reports of continued weakness in southern spot centers caused a drop of 16 to 19 points in the early trading in cotton todaq. On the decline the demand a reaction was brought about. At the end of the first half hour of trading the active months were 7 to 14 points over yesterday's close.

The covering of large short lines held the market steady, in the trading up to noon the advance was widened to 12 to 15 points.
